ADVICE CENTRE

We offer a safe drop-in service, providing support and information in one place, for women, men and children experiencing domestic abuse and related issues such as harassment, stalking, forced marriage, 'honour' based violence. Advance delivers the service in partnership with specialist organisations, supported by Brent Council.

The service is free and confidential to all Brent residents. We are here to listen to their concerns over the phone, video or face-to-face (when government restrictions allow this) and support them no matter what they decide to do, through:

- Domestic Violence Advocates, including specialists for Asian communities
- Children and Young person's Support worker
- Solicitors
- Housing officers

Please provide this information to residents

Open: Tuesdays 9.30am-12.30pm
